02

THE BUILD THAT DRIVES LEADS

Example Construction Co. has a working website, but the structure is not built around how local buyers search. Core services are grouped too tightly, local signals are light, and quote paths could be clearer on mobile.

THE CHALLENGE

The current site makes buyers work too hard. Service pages are thin, local search signals are underbuilt, and the quote path does not give high-intent visitors enough confidence to take action.

01

RANKS FOR THE SEARCHES BUYERS USE IN HALIFAX

Dedicated service pages help match buyer searches directly.

02

CONVERTS VISITORS INTO QUOTE REQUESTS

Clear CTAs and quote paths reduce friction.

03

SENDS GOOGLE THE SIGNALS IT NEEDS

Local, technical, and trust signals work together.

04

COVERS EVERY SERVICE WITH A DEDICATED PAGE

Each core service gets a page with its own job.

05

SCALES TO NEW CITIES WITHOUT REBUILDING

The structure can expand into nearby service areas without rebuilding from scratch.

03

THE SIGNALS THAT DECIDE WHO GETS FOUND

Google is not judging craftsmanship from the search results. It is reading signals. Here are the signals that separate the businesses buyers find first from the ones they miss.
